Local No. 1

Brothers:

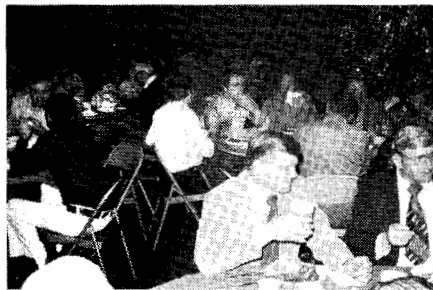

Greetings from the Big Apple:

As most of you know our President and Business Manager have resigned from office. During the interim before election, Exec. Board of Local No. 1 appointed Brother Karl Stork as President. The election will be held prior to this printing, so therefore I wish both candidates Karl and John Green good luck in the election. This is a very trying time for this local Brothers and I hope everyone of you appreciate it. We must support the President regardless of your political leanings. This local is in financial straits and whoever is elected will endeavor to bring this local out of its financial hazards. Therefore, because of this situation and regardless of who is elected we must back them 100%.

My second thought of the month is to our Brothers in the Housing Authority. After almost a year with the Teamsters I feel that you have realized that the Teamsters are not for you. They are not a skilled trades union. They are made up of porters, bulb snatchers and caretakers. Now that Local No. 1 has taken a turn in its leadership perhaps you would want them to represent you because NO ONE ELSE IS. You still have approximately six (6) months to disenfranchise with the Teamsters who have not done a damn thing for you. THINK ABOUT IT BROTHERS, was it all that bad in Local No. 1?

I have received a letter from Brother Jack and his wife, Eleanor Toolen. Jack is seriously ill.

"Jack and I are at a loss of words to express how grateful and thankful we are for all the generosity showed us during his illness. They say "every dark cloud has a silver lining". You fellas have certainly been our "silver lining". You all have truly been "brothers" to him for these 4½ months.

Christmas Time at Armor

Christmas Time at Westinghouse

Freddie Coleman and his assistant George Gamblin attending to the broth

On the lighter side: Unfortunately last month I did not get a chance to comment on the Christmas parties, but I will do so forthwith. I attended several Christmas parties, the first one being the Armor party out in College Point organized by our illustrious bartenders reading from left to right: Ed McAllister, Mario Tucci, Irving D. Corkett and Jim McNulty. The other two (2) pictures are of the splendid party that the Armor guys threw. The other party I went to with the Westinghouse guys out in Far Rockaway. As you can see from the pictures, it was not only Westinghouse men that were there and Freddie Coleman had a hard time keeping the other cooks away from the broth. At this time I would like to thank all the Brothers for the Christmas cards and especially you Pete Sutherland. . . . Congratulations to Ray and Pat Dorry on a bouncing baby girl, Jennifer weighing in at 7 lbs. 13 ozs. Papa is doing fine. I received a letter from Herman Resnick. (It is with regret that I said goodbye to my fellow workers at Westinghouse Elevators. However, let me say thank you for the send off party and gift.)

Hoping that the New Year brings us prosperity and fraternity.
