

NEW YORK, N.Y.

Local No. 1

Brothers:

I have just received an article from the American Mobilizers. At this time, I have no idea of their future action; but here is a quote from the article.

"While the Great Silent Majority sat on its rump, the heroes in hard hats of the New York Construction Trades led the attack on the enemies of America."

To this I can add, we of the Construction Trades are out to see our Flag and Country protected at all times.

I am one person, who is proud to be an Elevator Constructor. After thirty years, I hope we can all be of the same opinion. I have done a good job but I also know that I and all you Brothers, have been protected as long as we took care of our end.

As this article goes to press our Local #1 Dinner-Dance will be in the preparation stage, so I urge all you Brothers to be there to enjoy a great evening. The committee is working very hard with this in view, and needs all of your co-operation.

Around town one can see quite a few sky-scrappers making their bid for the sky, in the midtown area especially.

We are getting good reports from the students attending our school. They are enjoying the courses and have a lot of praise for the instructors. All we have to add is congratulations to Tom McGoldrick, Karl Stork, and Jack Wilson, the directors of the school program.

The weather in New York has been fairly good and the winter not too severe. We did have, however, a few very cold days.

The Brothers are pleased with the new surroundings and innovations in our new office. It is about time we upgraded our surroundings and acquired adequate working space for our Local . .

Again, I make my request, as to the use of this column. The Elevator Constructor Magazine is a part of each and every member. Send in stories, suggestions and ideas.

I am enclosing a letter and picture

Dear Brothers,

Your letters and cards have been a God send. They have made the days since last August a lot brighter. There are very few that Billy hasn't reread at least a dozen times. Your kindness will be a fond remembrance for the rest of our lives. Billy has been progressing at a rapid rate. We are hopeful that he will be well soon.

Sincerely Yours
Mr. [Signature]
